Dear Friends,

Will I see you at dinner next month? If you can't come in person, will you come as a sponsor? One month from today (November 17th) we will gather at Knott's Berry Farm in Southern California for fellowship, celebration, an update from all the CFOI Regions, and a delicious dinner with friends.

Last year's dinner supported the Training of Trainers program in Peru, and we'd like to share the exciting results.

This is also a chance to invite people who are new to CFO, and we'll introduce ourselves and invite folks to camps here and abroad. Please RSVP if you can come, or use the form below to make a donation for others to come. There is no admission fee. We trust God's provision through sponsorship and a love offering.

Another exciting opportunity that came out of Training of Trainers is a series of Refresher Phone Calls, beginning October 29th at 6 p.m. Pacific Time. Conference calls will be led by experienced CFOers, on topics that can help us improve the way we work together and the way we lead camps to gain the fullest benefit. The first one is on Meditation in CFO, led by Lana Runyan. You can call (712) 432-0075, code 699622# and join in. Invite your Council Ring too!

Thank you for your support of CFOI. We are reaching out in new ways, still dreaming large, as we love to do. Special gifts were given this month in memory of Ginny Moore and George McLane and in honor of Verla Goff. We also received wonderful financial support from several CFO and JFO camps recently. What a privilege and joy it is to partner together. Thank you!

CFOI folks from East Africa, West Africa, South Pacific, North America and East Asia at dinner in Peru

Peace and Joy to you,

Becky Sutherland, CFOI Coordinator
